February is the Month of The Passion of Our Lord

The month of February is traditionally dedicated to the Passion of Our Lord in anticipation of the liturgical season of Lent. In this month, we begin to meditate on the mystery of Jesus' sufferings which culminated in his death on the Cross for the redemption of mankind. Saints who had a special devotion to Christ's passion include St. Francis of Assisi, who was the first known saint to receive the stigmata; St. John of the Cross; St. Bridget of Sweden; and St. Catherine of Siena.

4th Sunday: Beautiful Attitudes

The gospel of Matthew chapters 5-7 contains Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. Jesus' famous Sermon on the Mount is a grand summary of Christian life lived with godly attitudes. They are called such because it took place on the hills in Galilee.

The Sermon on the Mount centers on relationship – with God and our neighbours.

- First, it deals with us as disciples, who are to be salt and light, and are meant to change people, neighbours, society and the world. It would therefore be wrong to try to keep God or religion apart from public life. God's kingdom is a power which aims at transforming all things (Matthew 5: 13-16).
- Then Jesus taught about our treatment of others. He covered murder, adultery, divorce, oaths, retribution, and the need to love our enemies (Matthew 5:17-48).
- Next, he explained how to relate to God through giving and prayer (Matthew 6:1-15).
- Last, Jesus provided guidelines for living in the world: storing up the right treasure, rejecting anxiety, refusing to be judgmental, knowing God hears prayers, and a warning about false teachers (Matthew 6:16 – 7:29).

The Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-12) is not the same as Sermon on the Mount, rather it is contained (or part of) the Sermon. The beatitudes stood out as most famous speech Jesus gave (the Movie: CHOSEN accentuated this).

The word beatitude comes from Greek - μακάριοι meaning "blessed," "fortunate," or "happy". This term signifies a state of deep, inner joy or flourishing. Billy Graham observed that the character we find in the Beatitudes is nothing less than Jesus' character put into words. He continued, "It is the description set side by side with an example. Jesus not only taught these principles, he lived them."

When one takes a glance at the beatitudes, the phrases are ironic: happy are those who are poor, mourning, meek, hungry, persecuted, and reviled. Indeed, it doesn't seem like there is much to be happy about there; but Jesus balances each statement with promises of comfort, acceptance, filling, and more.

- Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:3)

Adam Clarke in his commentary emphasized ‘that the person whom Christ terms happy is one who is not under the influence of fate or chance, but is governed by an all-wise providence, having every step directed to the attainment of immortal glory, being transformed by the power into the likeness of the ever-blessed God. Though some of the persons, whose states are mentioned in these verses, cannot be said to be as yet blessed or happy, in being made partakers of the Divine nature; yet they are termed happy by our Lord, because they are on the straight way to this blessedness.’

“Poor in spirit - One who is deeply sensible of his spiritual poverty and wretchedness. Being destitute of the true riches, he is tremblingly alive to the necessities of his/her soul, shrinking with fear lest he should perish without the salvation of God. Such people Jesus called ‘happy’, because there is but a step between them and that kingdom which is here promised.”

- Blessed are those who mourn: for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4)

For Clarke, blessed are they that mourn –refers to those who, ‘feeling their spiritual poverty, mourn after God, lamenting the iniquity that separated them from the fountain of blessedness. Only such persons as are deeply convinced of the sinfulness of sin, feel the plague of their own heart, and turn with disgust from all worldly consolations because of their insufficiency to render them happy, have God's promise of solid comfort.’ Jesus will call them to himself, and speak the words of pardon, peace, and life eternal, to their hearts,’

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord
