January is the Month of the Holy Name of Jesus

"In the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth and under the earth" (Phil 2:10). Christ's name is chosen in heaven, and the Angel Gabriel announces it when he informs the Blessed Virgin of the incarnation: "Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus". It is a name that has marvelous implications, for it means "savior." The very name bespeaks the magnitude of His mission, His infinite love, a love that will cause Him to offer Himself up for us.

The name of Jesus is the sweetest of all names, and He who bears it is most worthy of all love. He who calls Jesus his friend can be assured that this friend is the most devoted and unselfish of all friends.

Jesus is our all. In His name we may pray to the Father with assurance of being heard. In His name the Church administers all her sacraments. In His name she offers all her prayers and blesses homes, the fields, and the sick. In the name of Jesus she casts out evil spirits, and at the hour of our death bids us, "Go forth, Christian soul." She assures us that whoever shall call upon this name will be saved. When our soul has departed this life to seek its eternal home, the Church asks in the name of Jesus, "Eternal rest give unto him, O Lord." – Benedict Baur, O.S.B.

The Baptism of Jesus -Any relevance?

The feast of the Baptism of our Lord serves to remind us of our own Baptisms. In baptism we have a rebirth, initiation, and empowerment; our commitment and dedication to a cause, to spread the kingdom of God.

If Jesus was no sinner, then he has no need of repentance. What relevance could John's baptism have for him, and why did he submit himself to it? Even John himself testified that Jesus is greater - "I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire (Luke 3:16, Matthew 3:11). Getting baptized was very important for Jesus Messianic mission.

From theologians, Jesus' baptism in the river Jordan was a symbolic act. Jesus himself said it, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness." (Matthew 3:15).

It was also a moment of conviction about Jesus' identity and mission: that he is the Son of God and his mission was to preach the Good News of God's love and salvation and to atone for our sins by becoming the "suffering servant."

Furthermore, Jesus wanted to show solidarity with the people he had come to help. For this reason, it was important that he was baptized, and baptized publicly. In this way he was identifying with sinners. When he stepped into the waters of the Jordan, he was in effect saying to them, 'I am on your side.'

Moreso, Jesus would not keep himself apart from sinners. He would not wait for them to come to him. He would seek them out and go among them (Luke 19:10). He would befriend them. He would welcome them. During his time on earth, Jesus placed himself among sinners and joined them where they were. So much so that he was accused of being a sinner (John 9:24). In fact, he was treated as a criminal, and suffered the fate of the condemned criminal.

What transpired in the river Jordan proved to be a moment of equipment. The Holy Spirit, descending and resting upon Jesus in the form of a dove, bestowed on Jesus the power to preach and heal.

In addition, Jesus received the approval of God, his Heavenly Father, as his Beloved Son, which presented Jesus with a moment of decision to begin his public ministry.

St. Paul in his letters made a connection between the baptism of Jesus to his death. He wrote, “Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into his death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life” (Romans 6:3-4).

Hence, Jesus’ baptism in the Jordan and his dying on the cross go together; he did both for our sins. He took our sins on his shoulders as he went down into the Jordan and as he died on the cross. Therefore, there is a close link between Jesus’ baptism and his cross. In the same way, there is a close link between our baptism and Jesus’ death.

Jesus’ baptism in the Jordan expressed the intention of his whole life right up to dying on the cross for us, taking our sins on himself to save us. Our baptism also expresses the intention of our whole life up to our death, leaving our sin behind and living the life of Jesus.

Jesus’ baptism reminds us of our mission - to experience the presence of God within us, to acknowledge our own dignity as God’s children, and to appreciate the Divine Presence in others by honoring them, loving them and serving them in all humility.

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord
