June is the Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

In the apparitions to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, Jesus gives these twelve promises for those who are devoted to His Sacred Heart.

(1-7 published in this week's bulletin)

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their families.
3. I will console them in all their troubles.
4. They shall find in My Heart an assured refuge during life and especially at the hour of their death.
5. I will pour abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in My Heart the source of an infinite ocean of mercy
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.

Grow Hope Saskatchewan launches for an 8th season:

Together with seven farming families, you are invited to stand in solidarity with the 783 million people in the world who experience hunger. Farming families grow crops to sell; the proceeds go toward emergency food distribution and long-term food sustainability. You can help by sponsoring the input costs to grow the food on these donated acres. This year, our farmers have committed a total of 500 acres for this ecumenical project. Each of those 500 acres needs about $350-worth of seeds, fertilizer, and other inputs. Whether you’re a farmer or not, you can support this great work by giving at www.dev.org/give (make sure to assign your donation on to “Grow Hope Saskatchewan”). For more info or for donation links, visit www.growhopesk.ca/ or contact mleblanc@dev.org

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site.
Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery.

It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate. Thank you, God Bless!

Fathers in Our Lives

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail.

We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent;
grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You. In Your Holy name, O God, we pray. Amen.

Happy Fathers Day, God Bless

Trinity Sunday: Triune God

“The most beautiful experience we can have is that of the mysterious.” Albert Einstein

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the “hierarchy of the truths of faith.” (CCC: 234)

The Trinity is a mystery that should be assented to with faith, rather than comprehend fully. It is exciting to live with mystery. Yet even with faith, the mystery, the unknowable remain. The whole of life is not visible to us.

There was a king who had experienced everything mortal man can experience with his senses. But there is still one thing he hasn't seen - God. 'I would die happy if I could get just one glimpse of God', he said.

So, the king consulted his wise men, and offered them all kinds of rewards if they could make his dream a reality, but they were unable to do so.

Then a shepherd heard of the king's plight. He came to see him and said, 'Perhaps I can help your Majesty. The king was delighted and followed the shepherd into the hills. When he saw how poor the shepherd was he pitied him. As he went along he rubbed his eyes in anticipation of what he hoped to see. But the shepherd said to him, 'Your Majesty, if you wish to see God, it's not your eyes you have to purify but your heart.'

They stopped on a hilltop. Then, pointing towards the sun, the shepherd said, 'Look up!' The king raised his eyes and tried to look directly at the sun, but the glare dazzled him. 'Do you want to blind me?' he said. And the shepherd answered, 'But, my king, this is only part of creation, only a small reflection of the glory of God. How then can you expect to look at God with your weak and imperfect eyes? You must begin to search for him with eyes other than your physical ones.'

The king liked the idea and said, 'I thank you for having opened the eyes of my mind. Now answer another question: Where does God live?' The shepherd pointed once more to the sky. Above them birds were flying about. 'Look at these birds,' he said. 'See how they live surrounded by the air. In the same way we live surrounded by God. Stop searching. Open your eyes and look. Open your ears and listen. You can't miss him. Heaven is under our feet as well as over our heads.'

The king stopped and looked and listened. As he did so a peaceful expression came over his sad face. Then the shepherd added, "There is one other thing, your Majesty' With that he led him to a well. He stood there looking into its calm deep water in silence. 'Who lives down there?' asked the king. 'God does,' the shepherd answered. 'Can I see him?' 'Sure. Just take a look.

The king gazed intently down into the well. But all he saw was his own reflection in the water. Then he raised his head and said, 'But all I see is me'. 'Now your Majesty knows where God lives. He lives in you.'

The king realised that this simple shepherd was wiser and richer than he was. He thanked him and returned to his palace. No one knew if he had seen God, but all could tell that something had happened to his heart. This was evident from the kindly way he dealt with even the least of his servants.

~ F. McCarthy

Even when we think we understand the mystery of God, we are still only beginning. The mystery grows instead of diminishing with each new discovery. God is all around us. But until we discover him within us, he will always be remote from us, and appear unfriendly and uncaring.

God is greater than us all. We can never fully comprehend the Trinity. We struggle to understand even earthly things. So how can we grasp heavenly things? Only the gift of wisdom can help us to understand the ways of God. It is this wisdom of God that guides all that God made, because all things are made in his wisdom.

HAPPY FATHER'S SUNDAY!

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord

Fr. Benjamin Ezekwudo
